

Node js JavaScript & ES6 Assignment for FIEM STUDENTS

1. Create a program to calculate total salary using basic salary, HRA, and bonus.
2. Create a program to calculate final product price after applying discount.
3. Write a function to check whether a student is pass or fail based on marks.
4. Create an array of product names and display them using `map()`.
5. Filter an array of prices and show only values greater than 1000.
6. Create a greeting function using default parameter in ES6.
7. Merge two arrays using spread operator.
8. Create an order system using callback function.
9. Create a student object and update marks using spread operator.
10. Create a fake API call using `async/await` to fetch user data.
11. Create a GST calculator using arrow function.
12. Create an electricity bill calculator using units and rate.
13. Calculate total shopping cart amount using `reduce()`.
14. Create a login validation system using email and password.
15. Create a product search system using `filter()`.
16. Generate an invoice message using template literals.
17. Create a bonus calculator using arrow function.
18. Create a function using rest operator to calculate total marks.
19. Create a promise example for payment success or failure.
20. Create an `async` function to fetch order details.